

THE PACESETTER STORY: 1985-2011

Pacesetter Volleyball Camps began in 1985. The coaches who created the program were players or coaches with championship teams in the Upper Midwest.

Players, parents, and coaches were pleased. Pacesetter Volleyball grew in popularity from 8 camps in 1985 to over 50 volleyball camps each year through the 1990's.

Pacesetter has limited the number of camps offered to five each week into the 2000's to assure the best possible coaches and best possible camp at each location.

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR:

This summer will be our 27th year offering volleyball camps. We continue to seek the best coaches available and will be scheduling our staff early.

With only five camps each week, we expect to offer 55 high-quality low-cost programs in 2011. Host coaches are encouraged to sign up early to lock in the best week for their school. We hope your school will be one of them!

Jeff McCarron, Director

"Comments from 2010 Host Coaches"

"I would love to use Pacesetter again and I have already recommended it to other coaches... camp was AWESOME!!!!!! She taught the girls so much and they had so much fun. They are so excited for the season to start now and use all the things they just learned. I learned a ton as well."

"We have used Pacesetter three years in a row. The college coaches who run the camps are always looking for players to recruit: one of my seniors was recently offered a scholarship from a Pacesetter college coach. It's a great way for small schools to get recognition."
