

THE PACESETTER STORY: 1985-2012

Pacesetter Volleyball Camps began in 1985. The coaches who created the program were players or coaches with championship teams in the Upper Midwest.

Players, parents, and coaches were pleased. Pacesetter Volleyball grew in popularity from 8 camps in 1985 to over 50 volleyball camps each year through the 1990's.

Pacesetter has limited the number of camps offered to five each week into the 2000's to assure the best possible coaches and best possible camp at each location.

NOTE FROM THE COORDINATOR:

This summer will be our 28th year offering volleyball camps. We continue to seek the best coaches available and will be scheduling our staff early.

With only five camps each week, we expect to offer 55 high-quality low-cost programs in 2012. Host coaches are encouraged to sign up early to lock in the best week for their school. We hope your school will be one of them!

Jessie Curry, Volleyball Coordinator

"Comments from 2011 Host Coaches"

"This camp was amazing. Your prices are great! I know I wouldn't have been able to have the younger kids at a camp hosted by a local university team. Their prices were much higher. However, it is not just the pricing. The whole experience was great. It was easy for the coaches to organize, as Pacesetter took care of most everything. The actual camp itself was also wonderfully run. The girls and I both learned a lot. Thank you so much for everything, and hopefully see you next year!"

Steph Hochhalter, Glen-Ullin, ND

"Pacesetter camp coaches provide a great experience for all involved. They listen to the specific needs of host coaches. They then detail and plan their work at camp with your girls' needs in mind."

Katie Jo O'Gara, Mound Westonka, MN

"I have brought in a lot of colleges to put on camps for my players and none of them compared to the Pacesetter Camp. It was a high energy camp that focused on all the skills needed to make an experienced or beginning player better. They cared about each of the campers and gave them a ton of 1 on 1 advice. They were very knowledgeable, and I will be using them again as one of my summer camps."

Randy Pool, Sully Buttes, SD

"Living in a rural community it can be difficult to get my team to commit to going to a camp. With the Pacesetter organization coming right to my school, my kids don't have to worry about making those long commutes to one of the neighboring larger communities. We get the benefit of having an experienced coach and staying in the convenient location of our own gym!"

Claire Olson, Bigfork, MN

"I would love the opportunity to provide this camp to my girls again next year."

Karen Christensen, Wishek, ND
