

THE PACESETTER STORY: 1985-2010

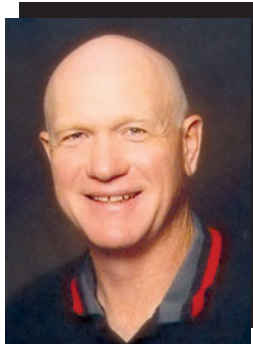

Pacesetter Volleyball Camps began in 1985. The coaches who created the program were players or coaches with championship teams in the Upper Midwest.

Players, parents, and coaches were pleased. Pacesetter Volleyball grew in popularity from 8 camps in 1985 to over 50 volleyball camps each year through the 1990's.

For the summer of 2010, Pacesetter will again be limiting its program to 5 camps for each week of the summer...a maximum of 50 camps...in order to assure the best possible coaches and the best possible camp at each location.

NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR:

Pacesetter volleyball camp directors last summer were almost entirely college coaches or high school coaches who have won state championships. Pacesetter will again seek the best possible camp directors for the summer of 2010. We hope you will invite this excellent staff to work with your players.

Jeff McCarron, Director
